

Mumtaz Anwar, PhD

mumtaz.anwar@pu.edu.pk, mumtaz_anwar@yahoo.com

<http://faculty.mumtaz-anwar-chaudhry.pu.edu.pk/>

Mumtaz Anwar is currently a research affiliate and postdoctoral fellow at South Asia Institute (SAI), Harvard University. He is also a research fellow at Hamburg Institute of International Economics (HWWI), Germany, along with his permanent position of assistant professor in the Department of Economics, University of the Punjab, Lahore (Pakistan).

Dr. Anwar holds two master's degrees in Economics, one from the International Islamic University, Islamabad, and the other from the University of Leeds (UK). He did his PhD in Economics at the University of Hamburg (Germany). Dr. Anwar has a good blend of teaching and research experience of 16 years. He has published widely in distinguished national and international journals such as Review of Development Economics. His PhD thesis was published in book form by renowned German publishing house NOMOS. He has had international exposure in Europe, North America and the Middle East, where he has presented papers in international conferences. He was Assistant Managing Editor of Pakistan Economic and Social Review from 2007 to 2008.

Dr. Anwar's research interests include International Political Economy and Development Policy. As an elected member of Punjab University Senate and Syndicate he made valuable contributions to community service.